PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Nov 19—The Times Columbia [illegible] says late last night the State board of [illegible] completed footing up the returns for State officers, with exception of Governor and Lieut. Governor and the result will be [illegible] to-morrow All the Republican [illegible], except J. R. Talbert for Superintendent of Education, and T C Dunn for Comptroller [illegible], are elected On the face of the re[illegible] majorities range from seven in the case [illegible] for Attorney General to more than [illegible] for [illegible]. Talbert and Dunn are defeated [illegible] at all, by some of the returns giving [illegible] initials to their names, such as [illegible] for [illegible] instead of Dunn and B for [illegible] in the case of Talbert If correction of the [illegible] is permitted by the court as has always [illegible] heretofore, then the entire ticket is [illegible]

[illegible] Governor and Lieut. Governor the [illegible] heretofore been in the habit of [illegible] their returns, no one objecting to it [illegible] Democrats insist that the Constitution [illegible] Carolina requires the returns for [illegible] to be transmitted to the legislature [illegible] gives that body authority to declare [illegible] elected Not desiring to exercise any [illegible] not clearly warranted by law the [illegible] will waive the count for these officers [illegible] returns to the legislature, which [illegible] It is known, however [illegible] by all, that the returns on their [illegible] Wade Hampton Governor and [illegible] Lieut Governor, both Demo[illegible]

[illegible] bers of the legislature, although [illegible] are not footed up it is conceded they will give the Democrats 64 Assem[illegible] and the Republicans sixty and that [illegible] will stand 18 Republicans to 15 [illegible], making a majority of one for the [illegible] on joint ballot. The board of can[illegible] required however, to certify what [illegible] and what Senators are elected [illegible] their certificates of election [illegible] board. Unless the decision of the court, which is expected to-morrow [illegible] the board to abide by the returns as [illegible] on their face, they will not certify [illegible] of five members of the Assem[illegible] county, where the election [illegible] fraudulent and in that case [illegible] would not have a majority in [illegible] of the legislature. It will there[illegible] that everything depends upon the [illegible] of the court, and it is awaited with [illegible] anxiety, by everybody. Republicans [illegible] many of them believe, that it will [illegible] those enlarged powers which [illegible] has heretofore exercised without [illegible] while the Democrats hope the court [illegible] considers that his only [illegible] retaining the office to which he [illegible] clearly been elected, is in [illegible] decision of the court as [illegible] of the board of canvassers [illegible] is rendered, the Republicans [illegible] get both branches of the [illegible] will declare Chamberlain [illegible], in which case Hampton can [illegible], and every facility will be [illegible]. If the decision is the other [illegible] will be declared Governor, and [illegible] whether Chamberlain [illegible] to contest. A contest for the [illegible] can only be brought about [illegible] action of both houses of the legis[illegible] as the Democrats have the lower [illegible] not believed they will concur in [illegible] action.

[illegible] of South Carolina, as Gov[illegible] asked to day, (and he wished [illegible] noted by the people of the whole [illegible]) have placed themselves in the atti[illegible] to prevent all investigation into [illegible] in which the late election was [illegible] this State, while the Republicans [illegible] in every possible way and will [illegible], to throw light on the whole [illegible] by any [illegible] they can get inves[illegible]. [illegible] they are willing to invite [illegible] of both parties to witness, and [illegible] by the result. Chamberlain [illegible] investigation would prove to [illegible] that the Republican ticket, [illegible] and State, was fairly elected by [illegible] majority. A good deal of nervous[illegible] exists among Re[illegible] here as to what the decision will be [illegible] Chief Justice Moses is not [illegible] Chamberlain because of his re[illegible] certificate of election to his [illegible]. The refusal for which he was [illegible] by the Democrats at [illegible]. Should the decision be manifestly [illegible] and unfair, it is believed that the [illegible] will refuse to obey the [illegible] of the court, and thus a new com[illegible] would arise Many Republicans [illegible] court was unwarranted by law, and [illegible] such a decision as the [illegible] ask for, it would be a virtual [illegible] of the powers of the board of State [illegible] apprehension exists also, [illegible] what will be the action of the Demo[illegible] Hampton is not declared Gov[illegible] are reported to be frequently [illegible] he shall be installed Governor at all [illegible] will be another revolution [illegible] not believed, however, that Hamp[illegible] violent action He has [illegible] friends here, who would [illegible] Governor, but whose support [illegible] will lose if his Democratic supporters re[illegible] to violence.

[illegible] General Ackerman of Georgia [illegible] here yesterday and will give the Re[illegible] the benefit of his legal advice in [illegible] that it may be deemed proper to [illegible] events transpire There is need of [illegible] to assist the Republicans as [illegible] eminent lawyers in the State are [illegible] side. Whatever difficulties may arise on the question of the Gov[illegible] there is no longer a doubt that [illegible] has given her electoral vote to [illegible] and Wheeler

[illegible] accompanying troops which recent[illegible] from South Carolina state that the [illegible] of South Carolina so far as they could [illegible] solely to the election of Hamp[illegible] and took very little interest in the Presi[illegible] election. Many of the Hampton men [illegible] for Hayes.

[illegible] Blair, just from South Caro[illegible], says the Democrats have duplicate tally [illegible] of all votes cast in the State which do not [illegible] with the returning board's tabulated [illegible]. It may be necessary to count the [illegible] ballots to determine the result

How about South Carolina?

NEW YORK, Nov 20—The World's [illegible] special says the Democratic state ticket is elected if the State goes for Hayes. It is believed that the throwing out of illegal votes will elect two Democratic electors

Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS Nov 19—The total vote of the State, made up from duplicate [illegible] received from 47 parishes and [illegible] parishes estimated by the registration of [illegible] and the vote of 1874 is as follows For Governor Nichols 84 202, Packard 76 112 total [illegible] 314 Total for treasurer in 1874 147 [illegible] increase this year over the 1874 vote [illegible]. Nichols' majority of the votes polled [illegible]. Six of the Tilden electors have a majority over the highest vote for a Republican of [illegible]. The other two Tilden electors have a majority of [illegible] The discrepancy in the ma[illegible] is caused by the omission of the names of [illegible] Hayes electors from the Republican ticket in several parishes

NEW YORK Nov 19—A Times New Orleans special says prominent Northern Democrats who came to Louisiana are going home disheartened and disgusted They see that Gov Hayes has undoubtedly carried the State and many of them are unwilling to give any countenance to the attempt which may be made to defraud the Republicans out of the fruits of their honest victory In the meantime politicians who remain here are beginning to talk a great deal about compromise and this morning a number of them tried to make some kind of terms with Packard but he and Gov Kellogg positively refused to listen to any plan of adjustment other than that which can be based upon a fair count of the votes The proposition to which I refer was not that formally made still it was very plainly intimated to Packard that he could be governor without trouble if he would agree to have Tilden counted in by the returning board The ex marshal replied that he had no influence with the board that it was composed of honorable men, who would do their duty honestly and fairly, and that even if he could control them he would decline to do so I am informed upon the very best authority that the plans of compromise alluded to above were made known last night to at least one member of the returning board He indignantly refused to listen and in the name of his colleagues protested against any further attempt to influencing the action of the board It is but justice to state that Nichols Democratic candidate for Governor, is not a party to any of these schemes They were all concocted by friends of Tilden who were willing to sacrifice the claims of all the State officers in order to secure the triumph of the great reformer Failing in these efforts however and seeing that they can never hope to honestly secure Louisiana's vote for themselves they have now virtually abandoned New Orleans, and are preparing to devote all their attention to Florida In three days more there will be a scare up of more prominent Democrats in Tallahassee They go prepared to use every means known to the lowest politician to capture the majority in the State. Florida has undoubtedly gone Republican by a majority of several hundred but the Republicans must not be secure in their victory As to Louisiana there is no doubt, and there need be no anxiety Upon a fair count the State will give Hayes a majority of at least 6 000 and a fair count will certainly be had Of the 57 parishes in the State 40 have been officially heard from They show a Republican majority of from 7 000 to 8 000 There will be contests in regard to at least 12 and perhaps 20 parishes but they will not come up until the districts in which there is no control have been disposed of This is in accordance with the State election laws. The count of contested parishes will be finished in about three days, and disputed ones will be considered It is thought they can be gone through with in seven days and that by the 1st of December official announcement of the votes of the President and Vice President can be made

P[illegible]ings to be Reported in Short-hand.

The gentlemen here on request of the President and also those here by request of the Republican organizations from States other than Louisiana, have determined, they say to secure a full stenographic report of all the proceedings and evidence before the returning board so that an impartial statement may be given to the public and to send to the President. They have also determined to change their committee of five from time to time, so that all their members may observe the mode of proceeding, and appearance and character of the witnesses examined

The Louisiana Returning Board.

The Tribune's New Orleans special speaking of the returning board says all of the proceedings of the board thus far have been such as to reassure every one who is supposed to treat fairly and who has not hastened to condemn in advance before a single meeting was held The record of the board is not as good as it might have been, but it should be remembered that when, on former occasions returning boards in Louisiana have disregarded law and have been guilty of acts which honest Republicans in the North could not sustain, they did not do it in the eyes of the whole nation or even the State but in secret session and when they did not expect to be held to strict account for everything they did now, with evidence in each case upon which they act published, to the country for it to pass judgment upon, it will hardly be possible that their conclusions can be of such a character as public sentiment cannot sustain At any rate nothing except harm can come of any effort to destroy confidence in the board While it is true that it has power to do anything it chooses and declare candidates of either party elected the spirit that has been shown at meetings already held is certainly one of great fairness

Louisiana telegrams state that the omissions of the names of some of the Republican electors from the ballots was confined to one parish and will not affect the result It is believed however that the returning board would not throw them out since the House the Democrats concurring has decided it is perfectly competent and legal to consider the evident intent of the voter in casting his ballot when found incomplete or formal This was decided in the case of McKenzie vs Braxton contestant from a Virginia Congressional district in which Republicans and Democrats in the 42d Congress unanimously gave the seat to Braxton Democrat On this same principle the House even refused to allow his expenses to McKenzie who contested on the ground that several hundred incorrect ballots were cast for Braxton Abundant authorities are presented here favoring the reception and count of the ballots of Republicans who were intimidated and prevented from voting on election day

The board commenced their canvass of votes by taking up undisputed parishes in alphabetical order The three parishes Ascension Assumption and Avoyelles were disposed of giving about the same vote as shown in tables made heretofore from duplicate poll lists Hon G W Julian, who at first declined to serve on the committee of which Gov Palmer is chairman because he expected to return home has consented to be added to that committee and will remain until the pending investigation is concluded

With a view to regularity and expedition in the discharge of the duties of the returning officers of election the following rules are adopted for their guidance

First—The returning officers will meet at noon each day Sundays excepted at the place designated for holding their sessions unless a different house or place be designated at adjournment

Second—Upon meeting the presiding officer of the board shall order the roll of members called If a quorum be present he shall direct the secretary to read the minutes of the preceding meeting or meetings unless the reading thereof be dispensed with

Third—The secretary shall daily keep accurate account of proceedings of the returning officers

Fourth The returning officers shall first take up the canvass and compile returns from parishes where no objection is made to the canvass or compilation of votes cast at any polling place in such parish or [illegible] [illegible] whether [illegible] compiled [illegible] the returning [illegible]

Fifth—That after disposing of parishes provided in the preceding rule the returning officers shall take up the parishes in which objection is made to the vote of any or all the polls in such parish that they first canvass and compile the votes at the polls in such parishes to which no objections are made and then they shall take up the contested polls in such parishes provided, that it shall not become necessary to delay the investigation of any such polls on account of the absence of witnesses or other evidence the same may be continued until a day to be fixed by the returning officers that returning officers shall decide at the time they are ready to proceed and what parishes they will take up first

Sixth—That all motions made by candidates or their attorneys or by other persons authorized to appear before the returning officers shall be in writing and [illegible] all arguments presented to the returning officers shall be in writing. No oral argument shall be allowed

Seventh—The returning officers if they think it advisable may go into secret session to consider any motion or argument or proposition which may be presented to them Any member shall have the right to call for the secret session for the above purposes

Eighth—When any candidate or his attorney or other person authorized to do so shall present a witness before the returning officers he shall present interrogatories to be propounded to such witness which he shall have previously submitted to his opponent to be cross examined at least 24 hours unless such time be named for the cross interrogatories be put before the expiration of that time In the examination of witnesses the returning officer may interrogate the witnesses beyond the interrogatories when they think it necessary but candidates and their attorneys shall not examine witnesses before the returning officer except as above provided

Ninth—No exparte affidavits or statements shall be received except as a basis to show that such intimidation or other illegal practice at some poll require interrogation but returns and affidavits authorized by law made by officers of election or in verification of the statement as required by law shall be received in evidence prima facie

Tenth—That evidence for each contested poll in any parish when concluded shall be laid aside until all the evidence is in from all the contested polls in the several parishes where there may be contestants and after the evidence is all in the returning officers will decide the several contests in secret session parties or their attorneys to be allowed to submit briefs or written arguments up to the time fixed for the returning officers going into secret session after which no additional argument is to be received unless by special consent

Spofford's Speech

NEW ORLEANS Nov 20—The following is an extract of Judge Spofford's speech on the adoption of the motion that all the proceedings of the board be in open session You Mr President remarked the other day that your functions were partly ministerial and partly judicial that the ministerial duties are few and simple, they consist only in addition and tabulation of the votes There is no call for privacy in applying the rules of arithmetic In performing all the rest of your duties in the judicial duties publicity is imperatively demanded, it is essential at every stage of the investigation in order to insure just argument. Adopt this order so that every whisper in your chamber may be heard to the uttermost extremity of the Union and thus only in my humble judgment will it be possible for you to reassure a perturbed and anxious country and to banish through all generations suspicions of the righteousness of your rulings and final award

More Democratic Frauds.

NEW YORK Nov 19—Overwhelming proofs are at hand that Mississippi Democrats rode over into Louisiana and voted in negroes names which accounts for one vote only in strongly Republican parishes, the Democrats giving it out that all the negroes voted the Democratic ticket Regarding the difference in the vote for National and State tickets, it now seems that Republicans had been somewhat in error At first it was announced as will be remembered that Hayes had run at least 2 000 votes ahead of the State ticket It was definitely ascertained yesterday however that the difference would not be more than 800 Some of the Presidential electors fall several hundred behind others In West Baton Rouge for instance, where negro State Senator Allen was running an independent ticket, they failed to print the name of two Hayes electors, and in this way they lost at least one thousand votes The Democrats are attempting to make capital out of this unfortunate circumstance by declaring that no matter what might be the result of the canvass for electors at large these two electors have been defeated They might have been if they did not have a majority of eight thousand to draw upon

The Devil's Own Bargain

NEW ORLEANS Nov 20—The politicians congregated here have discussed within the past two or three days the possibility of a bargain by which the political prizes in this State may be divided and unfortunately there is nothing in the character of the record of many of the politicians of both parties in Louisiana which makes the trade seem impossible but it is true that during the whole of the campaign the Democrats have cared more for the success of their State ticket than for the election of Tilden to the Presidency As long ago as the Cincinnati convention Louisiana Republicans, who were opposed to Packard's nomination, predicted his defeat although they expected the electoral vote of the state to be given to Hayes and some of them not only failed to aid their party here by taking the stump for it but even remained in the North on election day and didn't vote The report has been circulated that by an understanding between local politicians the Hayes electors were to be declared chosen and a Republican majority in the legislature and that the State was to be given to Nichols Of course the Northern Democrats protest against this as they will do against anything which leaves Tilden out Another theory is that the legislature will be given to the Republicans with the understanding that Kellogg and Packard shall be elected to the Senate and the State be given to Nichols and Tilden This the Northern Republicans will not agree to It is hardly probable any bargain will be made but the fact that such things are talked of by influential politicians here gives an insight into the state of affairs that exist

Pinchback in a New Light

A new element which does not seem to have been thought of before has been brought in to complicate this Louisiana controversy The returning board which is to pass upon the election was chosen by the Kellogg legislature of 1872 the same which was set up at the point of U S bayonets in pursuance of Judge Durell's notorious midnight order and which elected Pinchback to the U S Senate Now Pinchback has always held that his claim to be seated rested exactly on the same basis as Kellogg's claim to the Governorship and that if the latter had a right to hold the executive office the legislature of 1872 was also a legal body and his election to the Senate by it was also valid but the Senate refused to admit him to a seat Now he is reported as saying, that if that legislature had no right to elect him it had no right to elect a returning board for counting the votes of the electors returned by it to renew his application for admission

The [illegible] New Orleans correspondent is assured by Pinchback to day that the rumors of the returning board counting Hayes in and Packard out were absolutely unfounded

All the Democratic visitors to the city will [illegible], the [illegible] have left They were rather [illegible] in correspondence

Florida.

TALLAHASSEE Nov 19 [illegible] Stearns will as [illegible] that the State board has power to canvass [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] Democrats [illegible] [illegible] under [illegible] of State officers

NEW YORK Nov 19—The Times' Tallahassee special says the general situation remains unchanged and the intense excitement of the past week continues unabated Special returns from four more counties all Democratic have been received and the majorities fall below the previous estimate showing conclusively that the Republican claim of a good majority has been well founded as the Democrats gradually lose faith in their own estimates and find the frauds committed by their tools in many counties are being exposed, they grow more desperate and bitter. Hon W W Hicks a prominent leader of the Republican party and a member of Gov Stearns cabinet was publicly assaulted in the streets in Jacksonville for his opinions during the campaign and the lives of other Republican leaders are threatened Nothing but the presence of the U S troops preserves peace

Tallahassee is full of Democratic politicians from New York Philadelphia and other Northern cities in addition to many from Georgia and Alabama Michael Bunn was well known Democratic point [illegible] who has been here for several days [illegible] name left for home yesterday disgusted with the situation It will be a week or more before the returns are in Meanwhile the Republicans assisted by Gen Barlow Judge Robertson and Assistant District Attorney [illegible] Rollins of New York are hard at work securing evidence of fraud already committed and preparing to defeat frauds which may be attempted in the future Ex Gov Noyes of Ohio John A Kasson of Iowa and Lew Wallace of Indiana will arrive to morrow Perry H Smith the notorious Democratic politician of Chicago who went to Milwaukee before the election to place Tilden money where it would do the most good will arrive here to morrow to re-inforce John [illegible] Coyle Samuel Bard and other notorious Democratic outsiders

CHICAGO Nov 20—The Tribune's Washington [illegible] The National Committee's telegram from Florida to day represents the situation as satisfactory Those Republicans who are in a position to know say that since Saturday four more counties in all have been heard from giving less Democratic majorities than estimated This has dispirited the Northern Democrats who arrived there lately believing confidently in the false figures the Democrats had sent North Many Democrats give up the fight It is believed that plans have been made to capture the ballot boxes in some remote precincts Counter measures have been taken These four additional counties making an unfavorable showing for Democrats has it is believed here carried the Republican majority to a point where it cannot be overcome by manipulations of the remaining returns Several Democrats have returned from South Carolina reporting astonishing indifference among the Democrats there toward Tilden Hampton was their chief choice They speak bitterly of the conduct of Northern Democrats who aided secession and then deserted the cause and they have no intention of making any move toward another war They have enough

The New York Times furnishes the following document to the associated press

TALLAHASSEE, Nov 20—To Hon Z Chandler chairman Republican national committee Washington D C—We have been frequently asked to give figures of the electoral vote of the State as claimed by the Republicans We have declined to do so for the following reasons solely Official returns have been received from 32 counties of 39 and until all are in we are unwilling and think it unwise to give our understanding of the figures because of the possibility of figures in the Democratic counties still behind being sufficiently changed to alter the result We do not necessarily impute to any one a design to commit fraud but it is enough that such a thing is possible and not unknown here or elsewhere as in the case of election frauds in the city of New York at the Presidential election of 1868 and the well known Tweed circular in furtherance thereof in 1872 In this State the raising of the county return in favor of the Democratic State ticket nearly one thousand votes was discovered at the last moment and only counteracted by the extraordinary efforts which were made to obtain the original precinct returns we feel entirely justified in refusing to give any information which shall even in the remotest degree render any such fraud possible or desirable The delay in beginning the canvass arises from three causes

First—The uncertainty as to whether the Governor or the general board of State canvassers are the legal canvassing officers of the presidential vote The Democrats have asked to be heard on this question and it is now under consideration

Second—All returns are not in which it is claimed by many is a legal prerequisite to the beginning of the canvass and if it were otherwise yet, for the reason above stated it would be unwise to begin it until the returns are received Not unfrequently returns from remote counties do not reach Tallahassee for three or four weeks and the law allows the general board of State canvassers to wait 35 days to return in some counties the county canvass even is not required to be made until 20 days from the election The frauds or irregularities in certain precincts are charged by each side against the other It is desirable and proper if it shall appear that such questions are to be gone into that both parties should have ample time, if they desire it, to procure proofs by law The general canvassing board is clothed with full powers to correct fraud and irregularities in several the polls The provision of the law is eminently wise and needful in thinly settled counties where elections are sometimes not conducted with that order and regularity so generally observed in older communities In 1872 the vote of this State would have been given to the Democratic State ticket had not the general board of canvassers under its judicial powers corrected the fraud by which Jackson county canvass was made to show a Democratic vote of some 400 more than was shown by the regular precinct returns Thomas Bloxham Democratic candidate for Governor received 949 votes but returns were made to show that he received 1 320 while the vote of Hart his opponent was reduced from 1 109 to 709

When the Board Shall Meet.

The length of time allowed the Florida board of canvassers to examine the returns was until recently believed to be 35 days It was thought there was no express provision in the case of votes for Presidential electors and that they would come under the provision of the new law respecting State officers but an old law has been discovered which specifically limits the time to 20 days

NEW YORK Nov 18

To Gov Lippitt It is reported here on authority of Wm Beach Lawrence that one of the Republican electors of Rhode Island is ineligible and that the law of your State gives the office to the person having the highest vote who is qualified Lawrence claims to be elected himself D E SICKLES

To which Gov Lippitt replied Our State laws provide for all contingencies in case of vacancies from any cause in the Electoral College This State will give four votes for Hayes and Wheeler H LIPPITT

The only occasion for this correspondence is the fact that Hon Geo H Corliss elector elect is Centennial commissioner appointed by the President on the nomination of the Governor

Uncertainty in the Cabinet

NEW YORK Nov 20—A Times Washington special says members of the cabinet continue to be assured Hayes has a majority by dispatches from authoritative persons at Tallahassee but the hopes of most Republicans here have been steadily diminishing for the last four or five days under the influence of long continued uncertainty

Movement of Troops

NEW YORK Nov 20—The Times Washington special says Four companies of the 4th artillery arrived here this morning direct from South Carolina and are now quartered at the arsenal They number 250 men and are under the command of Capt. Loder They come here in pursuance of orders from Gen Sherman None of the officers of Gen Sherman's staff knew of their coming and profess ignorance of their future movements On Monday night last Sherman sent Col Bacon of his staff to South Carolina with sealed orders for Capt Loder to move his command to Washington with all [illegible] Upon receiving his orders Capt Loder put four companies in immediate [illegible] for Norfolk at which point they were embarked on a steamer for this city and landed at the arsenal to day where preparations for quartering them had already been made The arrival of a detachment of U S soldiers has caused considerable excitement or rather curiosity since it has been denied for two days by many prominent officers of the government that any troops had been ordered here or elsewhere and a statement of the denial telegraphed to all parts of the country yesterday Two or three cabinet officers spoken to this evening didn't know that soldiers were here or coming and Secretary Cameron this evening [illegible] when there was no need of concealment [illegible] of the affair So far as appears from information accessible to night no one but Sherman knew of the movement but this is hardly possible It is reported arrangements have been made at the arsenal to receive two regiments of infantry which would be 700 or 800 men and it is quite probable that 1 000 men or at least two regiments are to be brought here It may be on the other hand that these preparations and movements are merely casual and temporary, as one officer of the cabinet expresses the opinion they are. But while no explanation is made by the President or Sherman of the purpose of movement which is doubtless very simple and usual there will be an attempt to treat the affair as mysterious and strange A report prevails to-night that three companies now on the way East from Forts Riley and Fetterman are also to be quartered at Washington, instead of New York

NEW YORK Nov 20—The World's Washington special says The arrival of four companies of regular artillery in the city this evening was so unexpected and so at variance with the statements made by the President Sherman and Cameron yesterday in denial of the report that Washington is to be garrisoned as to create a positive sensation The force comprises 234 men Loder reported his arrival to Gen Sherman at 6 o clock this evening who seemed anxious to have a contradiction sent far and wide of the story that a large force of troops would be ordered here, the former even remarking he saw no reason why troops should be brought here Now I have it also on undoubted authority that 12 batteries of heavy artillery altogether have been ordered to report at Washington at once. Three batteries are on their way from Fort Leavenworth and one expected here before morning and others from Fortress Monroe and Fort McHenry, near Baltimore I have it also by undoubted authority that the order to Gen McDowell to report at once to his post in San Francisco has been revoked and that he has been instructed to remain instead in New York subject to immediate order

All the journals express some solicitude at concentration of troops at Washington The Herald says editorially, the news will doubtless excite some comment but it need not occasion any alarm The President and his advisers claim it is a wise precaution to have a respectable body of troops at hand until after the 4th of March inauguration day. They do not fear any outbreak or disturbance but simply provide for all possible emergencies

With regard to arrival of troops from South Carolina via Fort Monroe, yesterday, the President said this morning that it was merely an ordinary change of station Gen Sherman says there are four artillery companies equipped as infantry together with three cavalry companies

Secretary Cameron said this afternoon that additional troops were to be ordered here, and that the presence of those already in Washington had no important significance Troops from Forts Leavenworth and Riley, which arrived to day, belong to Gen Hancock's command, which includes the city of Washington Gen Sherman emphatically denies that this change of quarters has any political significance whatever and says that therefore there is no cause for excitement on account of it

Illinois Congressional Election.

CHICAGO, Nov 20—County Clerk Lieb has been deliberating some time about throwing out certain city returns on account of irregularities and to day it was reported and published as a fact that he had done so thus electing Hoxie Dem, to Congress instead of Aldrich Rep, and reversing largely the result of the county election The board, however, filed a document late this afternoon giving reasons pro and con and summing up by saying they should follow the time honored custom and count all returns without regard to technicalities This was hailed with satisfaction by the Republicans who, on hearing the previous report, had expressed the greatest indignation

What Mr Blaine Says

NEW YORK, Nov 20—Blaine passed through the city Saturday. In conversation with a Tribune's reporter, he said there was no foundation for the Washington rumor connecting his name with the Presidency of the Senate Parliamentary usage and his own personal wishes would be all equally against such a step It was a case in which he could not if he would, and he most assuredly would not, if he could Blaine seemed a little sensitive lest any one should imagine he could entertain for a moment the purpose imputed to him In regard to the Presidential question Blaine was very reticent showing an obvious desire not to discuss it He remarked however that for twenty years he had feared just such a crisis as is now upon us and the strain was coming upon the weakest part of the machinery of the federal constitution He expressed the opinion that both Hayes and Tilden have exhibited admirable prudence and propriety during these last eventful days, and to their bearing he thought was due in great part, the cessation of public excitement on the question If everybody will follow their example said Blaine a conclusion will ultimately be reached in which fair minded men of all parties will cordially concur

Ben Butler on the Situation.

The Times' Washington special says Ben Butler arrived to day and had a consultation with Caleb Cushing Butler thinks if Florida Louisiana and South Carolina are given to Hayes the House will object to the reception of their votes, and the Senate will object to Alabama and Mississippi and the President will not be chosen by March creating the President of the Senate, the President of the United States

Land Law.

Copp's Land Owner for November reports decisions by the Secretary of the Interior in effect as follows Filing of the declaration or pre emption statement, before settlement, does not invalidate a right in the absence of an adverse claim

All ex parte evidence filed after the close of the hearing in contested land cases before local land officers must be rejected except as a basis for an application for a new hearing

All documents and exhibits filed in the case after the same has passed beyond the jurisdiction of the General Land Office must be passed upon by the department proper and no paper thus filed should be rejected by the General Land Office

Where a party settled on the land in 16th or 36th section long prior to the survey [illegible] but has exhausted his pre emption [illegible] not by entry prevent the tract from [illegible] When notice of the selection [illegible] a tract by a state is received at the local land office [illegible] should be notified before proof and payment [illegible] made by the settler thereon but where patents have been issued under former rulings of the Interior Department their issuance will be considered res judicata.

Lands covered by an invalid State selection may be entered under the provisions of the timber culture act or otherwise subject thereto

Decisions by the Commissioner of the General Land Office are reported to the following effect The fact that a given tract of land has been entered or patented as a town site in no way prevents the owner of a lode claim from securing patent to his mine, is excluded from the operation of such town site patent as in case of a placer claim, the surface of ground is absolutely necessary to the successful working of the mine it cannot be included in a town site entry or patent

In cases of applications for patents for mines on the Comstock lode Nevada hearings may be had to determine whether the mines in question have been flooded or drained by the Sutro tunnel, but the commissioner of the general land office will not attempt to interfere with the right of mine owners to exercise control and ownership over their mines so long as they comply with the requirements of the law

HOW THE SOUTHERN WHITES CAN GET CONTROL OF THE SOUTH

Slavery, in the sense in which the term was understood before the war is dead, but the slavery question is still before the country Perhaps it would be more correct to call it the negro question now but call it what you may, it is the question of the right of the negro in America to the enjoyment of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, on the same terms as it is enjoyed by other human beings This is the vital question in the politics of to-day so far as the Southern policy is concerned

No rightminded and unprejudiced person, whether he be Democrat or Republican, can fail to understand, or will refuse to admit, that the rule of ignorance and passion which was the inevitable result of arraying the more numerous negro voters against the less numerous white voters, is a misfortune It is but natural that the whites, lately the masters and owners of the colored people, should be impatient of this rule, and should cast about them for some means of freeing themselves from it Whoever attributes their impatience, under the circumstances to mere brutality and malignancy of disposition, has studied human nature to but little purpose It is hardly supposable that a race just set at liberty after generations of the most degrading bondage, and with nothing originally to build upon but an unbroken line of cannibal savagery stretching back as far as their known history extends, and poor in property as in education or hereditary qualifications to rule, would conduct the Government of States in such a manner as to present a favorable contrast to the Government of even the bogus chivalry of the South Republicans who have their senses about them know this is true and would be glad to see the Southern States ruled by a class who are better fitted to exercise power, but they are not willing, and never will consent, to see the negroes trodden into the dust, and trampled into the mud of the streets by the white people They will never consent that those of the colored people who are qualified to fill public stations, and whom their own race wish to make their representatives and spokesmen in the affairs of the country in which both whites and blacks have a common interest, shall be met with the argument of bludgeon and bowie-knife and shot-gun They will not consent that the negro voter shall be forced to vote the ticket which his late master may see fit to hand him, at the peril of his life. In short, the negro must be recognized as a human being, with all the rights that humanity implies, and the people of the United States, the people of the great North, who have already shown their faith in the justice of God, by works such as only such faith could prompt and sustain them in performing, will not permit the establishment in the South of a peace that leaves the colored people under the feet of the white men, though to prevent it the acknowledged evils of carpet-bag rule should have to be protracted indefinitely

If the Southern people want to get rid of the rule of ignorance, the way is open to them, the only way that will ever give them permanent control of the affairs of their States. That way is to recognize the rights of negroes in their full extent, treat the colored man as if he were a man and not a dog, respect the laws that have made the two races equal in civil and political rights, stop the infamous system of proscription by which the negroes, whose labor has produced all the wealth of the South, are cut off from all employment and all chance to earn a livelihood for himself and their wives and children and starved into voting the Democratic ticket In this way they can take their State governments into their own hands right speedily The colored majorities in some of the States, will present no obstacle for the colored people will be ready to unite with the whites, with whom they have lived all their lives, the moment they can feel assured that in doing so they are not voting themselves back into bondage, or what amounts to the same thing. Upon a moment's reflection upon the relations of the two races to each other, and the necessary dependence of the new voters, to a very great extent, upon the guidance of white people, any one at all conversant with the methods of carrying popular elections will perceive that so soon as there is no longer any occasion for the use of force by the government to protect the negroes in their rights, the withdrawal of that force will give the government of every Southern State to the white people almost exclusively

A VERY CHEERFUL RETRACTION

It is amusing to read the editorial remarks in the Republican papers of the East, on the next morning after the election, when it appeared the Democrats had undoubtedly carried the entire country Readers of the OREGONIAN were furnished telegraphic reports of the comments of the great New York journals, and yesterday we presented enough of the Chicago Tribune's reflections on the subject to exhibit the cheerful state of mind in which that paper chronicled the event which was supposed to have taken place. We have the St Paul Pioneer-Press now, which does up the case, under the caption of "The Great Catastrophe," with a tartness that waits not to consider causes or to contemplate possible results

We don't say that the country has absolutely gone to the devil but we do say that it took an immense stride in that direction yesterday The returns of the presidential election leave little doubt that with a solid South Tilden has carried New York Indiana Wisconsin and Connecticut and with them without going any further a majority of the electoral college We confess that this result amazes us The election of Tilden under the actual circumstances is a broad satire upon the intelligence and patriotism of the American people and their capacity for self government. They have deliberately chosen to place this government in the hands of those who only a few years since were fighting to destroy it, and to place at its [illegible] hazard all the [illegible] elements of the war We do not care to express our full sense of the measure and proportions of this great calamity It is some consolation that a Republican Senate stands, and will stand for two years at least, as a firm barrier against the revolutionary possibilities involved in Tilden's election—and that is all we care to say about it at this writing

It is not a pleasant thing, under ordinary circumstances for an editor to have to retract what he has written, but we imagine the editor of the Pioneer Press must have experienced some of the happiest sensations of his life the next day as the truth broke in upon him, a little at a time, that he must take it back, and give Wisconsin to Hayes with an even chance at least for votes enough in the not quite solid South to make him President of the United States We can understand perfectly the feelings of disgust with which the article of Tuesday night was written and also the joy of the writer as subsequent news came in at the prospect of being compelled to make a formal retraction

We have not hitherto given credence to the rumors that the Governor proposed to disregard the law and the vote of the people of Oregon and issue a certificate of election to one of the defeated Democratic candidates for Presidential elector The scheme seemed so boldly violative of all the principles of honor that we refused to entertain for a moment the thought that the Governor contemplated it It is a pleasure to us to be able to state that we have heard one of the defeated candidates Mr [illegible] A Cronin express himself upon the subject and that he declares he would not accept a certificate of election under such circumstances We had supposed the Governor would be controlled by the same high sense of honor and indeed we trust yet that the reports current upon the street may prove to be without foundation But there is certainly an appearance of probability or, we should say of authenticity in the reports as they reach us now It is said the subject has been discussed at the State house and that the Democratic candidate having the highest vote has been consulted about it and an endeavor made to overcome his conscientious scruples in regard to it The story comes so circumstantially that we are afraid there is truth in it If so, every one who has part or lot in the fraud may as well make up his mind to retire from public life and not think of coming to the surface in Oregon again henceforth and forever

Senator Gordon of Georgia writes a letter to the New York Tribune, in which he repels the charge that Wade Hampton the Governor elect of South Carolina is "a fire-eater of fire eaters" and says that instead of being among those who led that State into secession he was one of the few men in South Carolina who opposed to the very last committing the destinies of his State to that grave and most perilous experiment, that he was notoriously an antagonist of that movement, spoke and voted in the South Carolina legislature against the ordinance of secession and has been universally recognized since the war as one of the most moderate men in any Southern State So far from being a "fire eater of fire eaters" he has been, Senator Gordon asserts "the conservative of conservatives" He is declared to have been the first man in all the South, if not in the whole country, to advocate the citizenship of the colored race If this is true we have a rational solution of his running so far ahead of his party in the recent election

The Standard expresses the opinion that "the inauguration of Hayes as President of these United States will result in the downfall of every business interest in our already bankrupt country." The business men of New York, the business emporium of the nation, and of San Francisco, the business emporium of the Pacific coast, seem to take exactly the opposite view If they did not they would not have taken the pains to warn the country of the danger to business interests of the election of Mr Tilden. The chances are that the moderate men who do not expect the business interests of the country to suffer very materially on account of the election of either of the two candidates are nearer the truth There will be no war and no serious disturbance of business in either case The hue and cry which extreme partisans like the Standard habitually raise over elections generally signifies nothing in the practical affairs of the country

Up goes all that glorious future which Secretary Chadwick has been so long and so ardently wooing if he shall allow himself to be driven or coaxed or tempted into doing the dishonorable part in canvassing the vote of the State We sincerely hope he may be strong enough to put the tempting thing away from him and save the State from disgrace and himself from ruin

The death of Ossian E Dodge the wit poet singer litterateur, journalist traveler merchant and land speculator is announced He died in London recently having gone thither some two years ago and remained there ever since without letting his friends know his whereabouts Misfortunes in business and finally domestic troubles broke him down

The election in Ashland November 6th for municipal officers resulted in the choice of J M Sutton recorder Isaac Miller marshal B F Reeser, treasurer and J M McCall J R Tozier, A Willets W C Daley and C Goodchild, trustees

If the governor concludes to oust Dr Watts vi et armis from the office to which he has been elected by the people of Oregon he may as well make up his mind to retire from politics at the end of his senatorial term

CITY.

THE ELDER ENCOUNTERS A ROUGH BLOW —It was expected when the steamer Geo W Elder left this port last Friday morning that she would be able to cross the bar and pass to sea last Friday evening or else early Saturday [illegible] On arriving at Astoria it was found that a fearful wind was blowing off the bar and owing to the roughness of the weather the steamer was compelled to remain at the dock for 30 hours, and was unable to pass [illegible] until Sunday at noon When crossing the bar it is said the wind blew a perfect hurricane. So violent was the gale that while the steamer was passing Sand Island the pilot was not able to stand erect and to save him self from being blown overboard he was obliged to lie flat on the top of the wheel house and cling for dear life However the steamer passed safely to sea and was soon ploughing her way through the trackless waste of waters, on her way to the Golden City Had the Elder not been detained at Astoria so long she would have been able to come to Portland to-day, as it turns out the steamer will not start on her return trip before Thursday morning She will probably arrive some time Saturday and sail hence with all possible dispatch

[illegible] CASUALTY —A correspondent writes from Silverton, Marion county, further particulars of a frightful accident which occurred near that place last Saturday At the time mentioned Mrs [illegible] Smith, widowed wife of the late [illegible] Smith, one of the old pioneers of the State, met with a shocking casualty, from the effects of which she shortly expired The old lady was sitting in a wagon with a rifle lying [illegible] lap when the accident occurred [illegible] Mrs Smith allowed the [illegible] to slip through her hands passing [illegible] edge of the wagon box In its de[illegible] the hammer of the gun struck against [illegible] causing a discharge to follow [illegible] ball took effect in the thigh near where [illegible] joins the body, and ranging upward [illegible] a frightful wound. Surgical aid was [illegible], but to no avail After lingering in [illegible] condition for one hour and a [illegible] the unfortunate woman died The terrible affair cast a shade of gloom over the [illegible], as the deceased was well [illegible] and highly respected

[illegible] A ROW —Chinatown was thrown into [illegible] of wild excitement last evening [illegible] o'clock. Whistles with their shrill [illegible] pierced the foggy atmosphere [illegible] particular thunder for a [illegible] As if moved by one impulse the [illegible] rushed pell mell to the scene of the [illegible] disturbance Several policemen [illegible] the noise ran quickly to the spot On [illegible], it was found that no blood [illegible] shed and no prospects of the effusion [illegible] Inquiring as to the occasion of [illegible] the officers learned that a row had [illegible] a Chinese boy and one of our [illegible] during which several blows [illegible] Fearing a general fight the [illegible] in the vicinity began to vigorously [illegible] their whistles The hoodlum taking [illegible] of the excitement sloped in the [illegible] and eluded the vigilance of the officers. As the cause of all the row had escaped, [illegible] and the crowd quietly [illegible]

[illegible] OF AUTHORITIES —In speaking of [illegible] proceedings in bankruptcy instituted [illegible] the O[illegible] Iron Works, the evening [illegible] says: The filing of a bill in [illegible] the Oregon Iron Works, [illegible] seizure of the estab[illegible] by a U. Every effort is [illegible] the parties interested to secure [illegible] amount of money to pay the [illegible]; but owing to the scarcity [illegible] is but little hope, and fate [illegible] ordained the sale of this valuable [illegible] under the auctioneer's hammer

[illegible] THE MACHINERY —The new [illegible], which was launched [illegible], and intended to run on the [illegible], has been completed with the [illegible] of the boiler and machinery It [illegible] the contract for the engines and [illegible] awarded the Oregon Iron works [illegible] contract was completed proceedings [illegible] was instituted and work was [illegible]. The present condition of affairs [illegible] damaging and is very embarrassing [illegible] company owning the new steamer [illegible] Is to be adjusted remains to [illegible]

[illegible] AND SUPPER.—The Ladies [illegible] of the East Portland M E [illegible] for Wednesday evening one [illegible] enjoyable festivals and suppers [illegible] Hall A small fee will be [illegible] for admittance, Musical exercises [illegible] may be expected A sumptuous [illegible] the finest Shoalwater bay [illegible] will be served also ice cream for [illegible] desire it. We hope these enter[illegible] will meet with all that patron[illegible] the generous East Portlanders and [illegible] which their commendable object [illegible]

[illegible] TELFAIR.—The Gussie Telfair [illegible] days overdue at this port and will [illegible] here this evening She left [illegible] last Thursday evening at 5 o clock [illegible] for this port As there has been a [illegible] protracted gale outside the Telfair [illegible] remained snugly in Neah [illegible] for it to blow over, in the [illegible] language of Wm M Tweed [illegible] from Sitka and way ports [illegible] a full cargo, principally of coal [illegible] Since the above was in type the [illegible] night at 12 o clock.

[illegible] —Early last week a sailor from one of the vessels in port—[illegible] name is Robert Scott, was arrested [illegible] with grand larceny He was held to [illegible] the charge, the testimony being con[illegible] The grand jury being recalled by [illegible] had Scott's case under [illegible] tion and indicted him for the offense [illegible] Yesterday morning Scott was ar[illegible] the State Circuit Court He entered [illegible] of guilty and the Judge sentenced the [illegible] to hard labor in the penitentiary for [illegible] of one year

NO TRUTH IN IT —As the report concerning [illegible] at sea of the bark Garibaldi [illegible] from Astoria Mr Macleay [illegible] Corbitt & Macleay telegraphed yesterday to that point to their agent there making inquiries in regard to the rumor They [illegible] to the effect that no such report was in circulation there That [illegible] furnishes substantial proof that the report has no possible foundation in fact Who[illegible] started the report is guilty of a most rep[illegible]

THE SILVER SPRINGS—THE BONANZA!

PORTLAND Nov 20 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I am awfully puzzled and I hope you or some of your very numerous readers will kindly enlighten me Last September I was in Prineville I had been prospecting on the Santiam, and then on the Ochoco and Crooked rivers and I had found only a few colors on some of the bars but no quartz nor granite east of the divide Well one day a party consisting of two white and three colored citizens came into town The next day they went trout fishing in the McKay creek six miles west of Prineville and caught some. They said they were going out prospecting, and so some of the boys began talking to them and we soon found that they knew nothing about mining, however they started out up the Ochoco and we thought no more about them Now it appears from what I have heard and read here in Portland that these unsophisticated chaps have struck it rich out on Camp creek one of the branches of Crooked river they say they found a sort of a geyser and they brought down a lot of stuff something like mush which is said to pay as much as $1000 to the ton Now there never was nor ever will be a practical experienced miner who would ever look for silver in such stuff In all that region there are no primitive rocks in strata The entire country bears evident traces of its volcanic formation the rim rock in it is basaltic and the flats are formed from its detritus The whole country is intersected by deep ravines and though you can examine chasms where the rocks tower above you for hundreds of feet you can find no indications of metalliferous quartz The only possible way to account for this very rich (?) find is this that thousands of years ago some huge glacier may in its progress have ground some quartz rocks (which were then in existence) into powder this powder was carried along by an [illegible] creek like Squaw creek then this sank into the ground and flowed on subterraneously until at last emerging in these springs it threw up the wonderful deposit which is now so much talked of in Portland I have heard that various joint stock companies have been formed and that shares have been offered for sale by parties who profess to have located any number of these springs Now do you think we ought to follow the example of the Black Hills miners and jump the Warm Springs reservation at once or wait a little until Professor Condon who knows that country gives his opinion about this mushy stuff? My reason for inquiring is this by this time the snow is all over the mountains and no real work can be done until spring and in the mean time I would not like to see any poor, honest miners taking shares in companies, or spending their last coin in going on a fruitless or silverless errand Many of us remember Frazer river and the destitution which hundreds of miners at that time So Mr Editor I hope you will not think it impertinent of me to ask you to publish this so that the matter may be fairly laid before the public.

THE EASTERN QUESTION

[BY TELEGRAPH]

NEW YORK, Nov 19.—The Herald cable dispatch from Constantinople declares that the Porte has now abandoned the project of sending troops to Roumania to prevent the march of the Russians but that Turkey will await the attack on the southern bank of the Danube

A dispatch from Berlin says a commissioner from the Roumanian government arrived in the German capital Friday and others have already reached Vienna and Paris to plead for the protection of their neutrality The efforts of the Roumanian envoy at the Berlin court, although he bears the most powerful appeals from Prince Charles have been in vain, and it is believed a deaf ear will be turned to the entreaty in Paris

LONDON Nov 19.—A dispatch dated Constantinople Saturday says the extraordinary grand council to day resolved to accept the conference It is stated that Midhat Pasha and Saviet Pasha will be the Turkish plenipotentiaries Chev Pasha has been sent to Philippopolis for trial by the commission which is investigating the atrocities in Bulgaria

The papers to day generally take a more hopeful view of the situation The Times says this morning opens so fairly that we are perhaps led to be too sanguine in holding that peace is assured It is hard to believe that when ten persons all representing powers deeply interested in keeping peace meet in council they will not maintain peace unbroken

LONDON, Nov 19.—The Standard's dispatch from Berlin says Russian police or less to have discovered a plot in Poland The Roman Catholic bishops of Zytomir in the Province of Volhynia have been arrested and imprisoned at Moscow and several Polish curates thrown into prison at Warsaw All centers in arms are subjected to stringent regulations

The Standard's Berlin dispatch reports that Turkey has sent a note to Bucharest asserting her right to send troops to Wallachia in the event of Russian invasion

A telegram is received in Vienna stating that Gen Tchernayeff has been superseded in the chief command of the Servian army by Gen. Zochmann formerly commander of the Russian military district of Odessa

Berlin, Nov 19.—The Post asserts that several Americans have applied to the Russian government for letters of marque to be used against English shipping in the event of war

LONDON Nov 19.—The Times Calcutta dispatch says The Pioneer states that the Indian government is preparing to send a strong contingent of troops to Egypt if war is declared in Europe

The Daily News special from Vienna says It is positively stated that neither Germany nor Austria would oppose Russia's entry into Roumania

A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says The highest estimate which even Russians give of the portion of the Russian army now in process of mobilization, is 250 000 men

A News dispatch from Belgrade says Five hundred Russians arrived there Saturday. There seems a disposition to have Russians who were disgusted with Servians during the late campaign, replaced by fresh and enthusiastic men.

A Vienna correspondent of the Times confirms the report that Midhat and Saviet Pashas are to be the Turkish plenipotentiaries at the conference.

A Berlin special to the Times reports that all ships of the Russian Black Sea Navigation Company have been impressed into the service of the Russian government

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Marquis of Salisbury, the special ambassador to act with Sir Henry Elliott as English plenipotentiary at the coming conference, left to day with his family and suite for Constantinople. He will stop at Paris, Berlin and Vienna, presumedly for consultation with foreign ministers.

LONDON, Nov 20.—Careful official contradictions are published of reports of activity at Woolwich arsenal in connection with Turkey's complications. The increased demand for cartridges is solely in consequence of the adoption of the Martini Henri rifle in the Indian army.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Great Cyclone.

CALCUTTA, Nov 20.—Three large islands—Bhola, Hattiar, Sundip and Dakhin Shahabozhare, and numerous smaller islands including Backergunge, Norkhally and Chittangong, were entirely submerged by the storm wave of October 31st, as was also the main land for five or six miles. These islands are in a corner estuary of the river Megua. The largest, "Dakhin Shahabozhare," was 500 square miles in extent. It had a population of about 240 000 Hattiar and Sundip together had about 100 000 population Up to 11 o'clock on the night of the 31st there were no signs of danger but before midnight a wave swept over the country to the depth in many places of twenty feet surprising people in their beds. Dense groves of cocoanut and palm trees around the villages enabled many to save themselves by climbing among the branches Some took refuge on the tops of their houses but the water burst their houses asunder and swept them out to sea. Some of them were carried thus across the channel ten miles to Chittangong district but the vast majority were never heard of again. The country is perfectly flat, and almost every one perished who failed to reach trees There is scarcely a household in these islands and on the adjacent coast but lost many members The cattle are all drowned, boats are swept away, and the means of communication with other districts destroyed There is much distress among the settlers which the government is relieving The government Gazette says where the storm wave passed it is believed not a third of the population survived. The islands have barely one fourth of their former inhabitants The stench from putrefying bodies is insufferable, and a general outbreak of cholera is expected The correspondent says this is happily not yet realized, except in Norkalley, where the disease has appeared

LONDON, Nov 17.—The Calcutta correspondent of the Times states that the estimates based on official returns from various police sections gives the total loss of life as 215 000 in three districts, and it is probable that even this estimate is too small

Labor and Capital.

LONDON, Nov 19.—The operative cotton spinners' association held a meeting at Manchester yesterday, and while justifying the Blackburn strike, the men decided to return to work This action averts the lock out which would have affected 80,000 Lancashire operatives.

Italian Politics.

ROME, Nov. 20.—The Italian parliament was opened to-day The King in his speech from the throne referring to the threatening events transpiring at present expressed confidence in the success of counsels of moderation to which his government had given effectual support

Regarding relations between Church and state the King said extensive liberties granted the Church ought not to impair public liberties government would therefore propose bills for rendering efficient reservation in laws respecting the Papal See Bismarck's Health.

LONDON Nov 20.—A Berlin correspondent of the Post writes to that journal under date of Nov 16th, that Prince Bismarck is expected to return to Berlin in a few days The story told in what purported to be a London dispatch to the New York Graphic of Nov 4th about Prince Bismarck's health in which it was said that his nervous system was seriously impaired and that his physicians feared softening of the brain, &c is an utter fabrication

Shipwrecks

LONDON Nov 20.—The steamer Windsor Castle has been lost near Cape Town No particulars of the disaster received This vessel is one of the regular mail steamers plying between Great Britain and the Cape of Good Hope The passengers and crew were all saved

A dispatch from Nagasaki says the British gunboat Lapwing has been lost in a great gale near Coo Foo No lives lost

Bank of England.

LONDON Nov 20.—Amount of bullion withdrawn from the bank on balance to day £115 000

The Famine in India.

LONDON Nov 19.—News from the famine-threatened districts of Madras is somewhat better Rain has come in time to do some good In Bombay prospects are still gloomy Actual famine in two or three districts seems probable and [illegible] dist. in four or five more.

The financial situation is unchanged in any of its important features but from the depression strictly monetary showing rather inactivity and some improvement in the demand for short time accommodations but not the usual call for annual loans Rates at the banks and elsewhere are firmly sustained with the slightest perceptible tendency toward a closer condition in this respect than was expected While but few men of sagacious judgment in business matters anticipate any serious pressure financially during the remainder of the year there are those who argue that events indicate that a very considerable general tightening of the money market will be felt at the close of the year when the annual settlements are required to be made

Latest advices by mail from the East indicate some improvement in business but note no important fluctuation induced by the unsettled condition of the future political condition of the country

Recent advices from Washington state that Secretary Morrill is of opinion that he will succeed in disposing of at least one hundred million of the four and one half per cent bonds within the next two months and three hundred millions authorized by law will be taken up by European capitalists unless a general European war ensues in which event the money markets may be so disarranged as to seriously interfere with the funding operations and probably cause a temporary suspension The fact that the syndicate is shipping gold from London to pay for the four and one half per cent bonds is regarded as a very encouraging sign, and is accepted as evidence that the balance of trade is in our favor

The World's Shipping.

The N Y Bulletin has compiled tables showing the standing of all nations in respect to mercantile fleets from which we note some interesting facts The compilation does not include coastwise craft which places the United States at a disadvantage in the showing the writer asserting that our own nation has the largest coastwise and lake fleet in the world which, if a list of it were procurable would swell our aggregate tonnage to fully if not more than that of Great Britain which has but a meagre coastwise marine most of her trading being on the sea As it is the tonnage of the United States stands second or the list Great Britain of course leading The total tonnage of the enormous fleet which carries the world's trade is stated at 15,553 368, of which Great Britain has 7 80[illegible] and the United States 2 390,521 The number of vessels in the merchant marine service of Great Britain is 20 [illegible] and in that of the United States 7 288 The aggregate tonnage in 1876 is smaller than in 1870 the falling off being due to the backwardness of trade during the past few years and also to the fact that vessels lost have not in consequence been replaced as promptly as usual

On the latter point the Bulletin gives some rather startling figures It seems there are from 2,000 to 2,500 sea going vessels lost every year—in 1870 the number reaching the enormous total of 2,500 The average, however is not over 2 000 per annum a loss which is of course made up by new vessels. The amount invested in sea going sailing vessels in 1873 was estimated at $508 327 000 and in sea steamers $392 016 000—a total in round numbers of $900 000 000

About Prices.

Of late years Oregon has usually received due credit for her products when they were being compared with those of California, but we find in looking over the report of the department of agriculture for the month of October that by some means the compilers of the report have been led into an error in the matter of giving prices for wheat in the San Francisco market during that month California wheat is quoted at $1 62½ per cental while Oregon is quoted at $1 60 in the same market which all who are familiar with the facts know to be incorrect, as Oregon wheat has always borne and still bears quite as high a price in the San Francisco market as the California product and averages rather more than less.

The same report, however quotes Oregon wool in the same market at 20@25c ℔ and California at only 15@22c a difference quite as wide as the average of transactions would warrant The quotations for butter compare thus—California, 25@45c Oregon 20@25c ℔—a disparagement to the latter which we are not prepared to impeach

Home Produce Market.

During the past three days there has been a very considerable degree of feeling in the wheat market owing to advanced telegraphic quotations from Liverpool and San Francisco As high as $1 65 per cental has been offered for fair lots here and though there is a slightly weakening tendency this afternoon General quotations at $1 62½@1 65 are very nearly correct The number of vessels now at hand for the grain trade either under charter or seeking is 16 with three or four others about due and should prices keep up the trade will be very active and the volume of transactions large for some time to come

Flour mill feed and provisions are unchanged bacon being very scarce and wanted at maximum current rates to supply the local demand Dairy products are in fair supply for the season with a reasonably brisk inquiry for choice qualities of butter and cheese for home consumption Eggs are held by jobbers at quotations but some shippers are out of the market at so high a figure

Fruits and vegetables of seasonable qualities are abundantly supplied and the demand except for choice lots for shipping purposes is dull

Produce dealers generally are busy and this department of trade exhibits both an activity and volume exceeding any season for two or three years past

LONDON Nov 20.—The Mark Lane Ex in its weekly review of the British corn trade says the supplies of wheat in the country markets have been again small but again its condition has improved Under the influence of frosty weather dullness has been the prevailing feature in the provincial trade for both wheat and feeding corn Several markets quoted a decline of a shilling per quarter for English wheat. The imports for last week into London have been more liberal than lately, but the supply of American wheat was comparatively light against the large arrivals of Russian and Indian The approaching closing of Russian navigation will make America our main source of supply for red wheat It remains to be seen whether she will ship it at present prices or await a[illegible] the local trade has received owing to [illegible] the usual proportion of imports [illegible] Egyptian and East Indian shipments Oats advanced sixpence per quarter [illegible] arrival [illegible] maize receded six pence [illegible] market [illegible] Arrivals [illegible] moderate during the week [illegible] one shilling [illegible]

OBJECTS

This Savings Bank has been formed at the desire and under the auspices of thirty one gentlemen citizens of Oregon and Washington Territory who have become Stockholders therein along with certain other gentlemen in Scotland to supply a want hitherto much felt, namely an institution where similar to those in California the working farming and other classes of Oregon and Washington Territory may from time to time deposit their earnings or savings along with the Bank's own capital for investment in Oregon and Washington Territory (to which the Bank's operations are limited) secured from Mortgages over City Properties Farming and other Lands for the purpose thereby of assisting to develop the Industries of the North in the West

The Bank's Directors and Officers in Oregon having had considerable experience in finance and real estate securities their policy will be to guard depositors moneys and the stockholders capital by lending only on first class securities high in interest being a secondary consideration The Bank does not therefore seek to employ its funds in a commercial banking business confining its operations strictly to those securities with which its Directors are familiarly acquainted such as real estate loans advances on bonds, assignments and similar securities which are not fluctuating in value hence no loans will be made on Promissory Notes alone or Bills of Exchange and such like

Security to Depositors.

The security for repayment of Depositors moneys is two fold

1st Not only the mortgages assignments bonds and other pledges on which the Bank's deposits are annually loaned and the real estate secured there by which must be located in Oregon and Washington Territory but also

2d The Bank's own $300 000 capital specially pledged for the safety of depositors in order that all losses (if any) shall be made therefrom thus forming a double security for depositors moneys
